INQUISITO - 2025

Celebrating World Physiology Week at SAMC & PGI

To mark World Physiology Week, the Department of Physiology, Sri Aurobindo Medical College and Post Graduate Institute, Indore, under the vibrant leadership of Dean Student Welfare and Prof and Head, Department of Physiology, Dr. Jaishree Tapadia, organized "Inquisito 2025." The event aimed at igniting curiosity, building scientific temperament, and strengthening camaraderie among students from various health sciences disciplines.

This year's Inquisito brought a delightful blend of competition and collaboration through its carefully crafted events. The "Physio-Fiesta" delivered an array of interactive games that made learning physiology engaging and energetic. The "Anaemia Awareness Wall" created a colorful visual impact, with students submitting impactful posters to highlight the ongoing challenge of anaemia and promote strategies for early detection and prevention. Meanwhile, "Fuel Your Physiology"—a unique fireless cooking competition—encouraged participants to explore nutrition science, demonstrating that eating healthy can be creative and accessible.

Adding prestige to the occasion, Inquisito 2025 was graced by respected dignitaries: Dr. Mahak Bhandari, Managing Director and Pro Chancellor, Sri Aurobindo University; Dr. Jyoti Bindal, the University Provost, Sri Aurobindo University. Their presence inspired students and faculty alike, underlining the institution's commitment to innovative teaching, scientific advancement, and holistic student development.

The participation of MBBS, BDS, BPT, and BOT students infused the event with youthful enthusiasm and interdisciplinary spirit. Throughout the day, the Department buzzed with excitement as friendships were formed, ideas exchanged, and new perspectives gained—all woven together by the unifying thread of physiology.

Inquisito 2025 concluded on a high note, leaving everyone inspired to pursue excellence in academic and co-curricular arenas. By fostering awareness, creativity, and community, the event not only celebrated physiology but also reaffirmed its relevance as a dynamic foundation in the science of life and health.

"Samvidhan Utsav 2025" Constitution day Celebration Report

Sri Aurobindo Institute of Law, Sri Aurobindo University, Indore successfully organized "Samvidhan Utsav 2025", a three-day interdisciplinary academic, cultural and legal festival from 24th to 26th November 2025, commemorating Constitution Day (Law Day). The event brought together students, faculty, distinguished guests and legal luminaries to celebrate India's constitutional values of justice, liberty, equality and fraternity.

The festival commenced on 24th November 2025 with an inspiring Inaugural Ceremony. The inaugural ceremony was attended by Dr. Mahak Bhandari, Managing Director, SAIMS, as the Chief Guest; Dr. Jyoti Bindal, Provost, SAU, as the Guest of Honour; and Dr. Jaishree Tapadia, Dean (Student Welfare), SAU, as the Distinguished Guest. The program began with the lighting of the lamp, followed by welcoming words from Prof.(Dr.) Rajiv Kumar Jain, Dean & Director (Law). The inaugural session highlighted the need for constitutional awareness among youth in safeguarding democracy. Cultural performances and introductory academic presentations marked the beginning of the three-day fest. The dignitaries addressed the students on the significance of constitutional values in contemporary India.

On 25th November 2025, the second day witnessed a blend of academic pursuits and vibrant student engagement. Key activities included Article Writing, Essay Competitions, Legal Debates, and Cultural Performances celebrating the Indian Constitution. Students from B.A.LL.B (Hons.) and LL.B (Hons.) showcased remarkable participation, reflecting their understanding of constitutional law and contemporary legal challenges. The activities emphasized constitutional values, democratic responsibilities and legal reasoning among future law professionals. The final day, 26th November 2025, featured major highlights including the Constitution Oath Ceremony, administered by Prof. (Dr.) Anil Kumar Mishra, Pro-Vice Chancellor, SAU, Indore, as the Chief Guest with Dr. Anand Misra, Registrar, SAU, Indore, as the Special Guest. Students pledged to uphold constitutional values and ethical legal conduct. The day also featured an engaging Mock Trial Competition, demonstrating students' advocacy and judicial reasoning skills. Artistic and cultural competitions such as Singing and Portrait Competition added creative vibrance to the celebrations. The three-day festival concluded with appreciation for student participation, faculty guidance and the institutional commitment to foster constitutional literacy. "Samvidhan Utsav 2025" successfully blended academic insight, cultural expression, and civic responsibility, inspiring young legal minds to uphold the Constitution both in spirit and action.

Congratulations - Dr. Praveen Arora Honoured at INPALMS 2025

Sri Aurobindo University proudly celebrates the remarkable achievement of Professor Praveen Arora, Head of the Department of Forensic Medicine and Toxicology, who delivered the keynote address on Euthanasia during the prestigious INPALMS 2025 Conference, held in Kolkata from 7th to 11th November 2025.

Professor Arora's keynote explored the medico-legal, ethical, and human dimensions of euthanasia, offering a balanced perspective that combined academic rigor with compassionate insight.

His address was widely appreciated for its depth, clarity, and relevance to contemporary debates in medical jurisprudence, reflecting his commitment to advancing dialogue on sensitive issues that shape both law and medicine.

In recognition of his outstanding contributions to the field, Professor Arora was conferred the Fellowship of the Indian Academy of Medico-Legal Experts (FIAMLE)—one of the highest honours in medico-legal sciences. This fellowship acknowledges his leadership, scholarship, and dedication to strengthening medico-legal education and practice in India.

The dual distinction of delivering a keynote at INPALMS and receiving the IAMLE Fellowship underscores Professor Arora's stature as a thought leader and mentor. His achievement brings immense pride to Sri Aurobindo University and inspires students and colleagues to pursue excellence in academic and professional spheres.

Congratulations-Dr.Brajendra Baser

Three decades ago, as a young associate professor of ENT at KEM Hospital Mumbai Dr. Baser authored the first book on rhinoplasty in India. Over the years, this book has been read by many inspiring ENT plastic and maxillofacial surgeons across more than 20 countries. The updated fourth edition, complete with an e-book and video library, was launched at the Rhinocon conference by the renowned plastic surgeon Prof. Wolfgang Gubisch from Germany. Additionally, the Spanish edition of the book will be available early next year.

Congratulations

Happy to share that I have been awarded the international AROI fellowship at the recently held AROICON 25, at Kolkata. Was also a faculty at this conference for the Neuro-oncology track.
